Happy New Year! It's hard to believe that 2013 is already upon us. We rung in the New Year this year much like we always do -- at the Hilton Hotel in downtown Minneapolis alongside 250 staff and 1,500 college students. At our annual conference, TCX, each staff member serves a specific role at the conference. This year, we served as Social Media Directors -- handling all things Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. It allowed us to interact with students in a different way, and even provided an opportunity to share a video about the Gospel called "Falling Plates" over various social media. Courtney also served as a personal assistant to one of the Program Directors. Both of these roles gave us a behind the scenes glimpse into the programming team. This team is responsible for juggling the moving parts of the seven large group sessions that take place in the ballroom -- where we worship, learn from our speakers, and listen to student testimony's.

In addition to the main sessions, there were 24 seminars offered to students with topics ranging from making disciples and experiencing forgiveness, to how to date and be a good steward of money. This year, we had the privilege of leading the dating and relationships seminar. We want to honor the Lord in all areas of our lives, particularly in our relationships, but we're often left at a loss on how to be Christ-centered in this area of our life. Nearly 500 students attended our seminar. (Check out a picture of one of our groups below!)

One of the days at TCX is specifically devoted to outreach in Minneapolis. Students step out in faith to serve others by bringing boxes of food and the message of the Gospel to the poor, lost, and broken people in the Twin Cities. The picture above is of cards with the names of each person who made a decision to follow Christ. Below there is a picture of one of Erick's disciples (Josh) sharing up on stage about his experience in the city and to celebrate how God moved in his life that day. Thank you for your partnership and prayers for TCX. We pray that you praise the Lord with us in what He did this year!

TCX: Day of Outreach

Prayers & Praise

Pray for students' hearts to soften to the truth of the Gospel. It is a new semester and this week we are having a Cru-promo outreach by handing out free cups of hot cocoa on campus. Pray for students who haven't heard of Cru to feel loved and cared for by our service, and to seek out how to learn more about God. Pray for new relationships to form on campus this semester.

This semester we are doing a talk series at Cru based off the book of Daniel. We're specifically leading students through discussions around how to life a holy life in a secular world. Pray for students to learn how to dive deep into scripture and discern how to apply God's Word to their lives.
